

Sarah Ann-Marie Schick

Means 'Princess'
in Hebrew!

A close member of the family!

My mum's middle name!

Means 'fancy' in German!

Me back then:

Me now:

Fun fact about me:

I have lived in 3 different countries, and have moved houses 13 times!

I was born in Whakatane, New Zealand, (-37.950958 , 176.995048)

Fun fact about where I was born:

Whakatane means 'to act the part of the man'. This comes from when a woman shouted 'Whakatane' as she broke tradition to swim out to sea to retrieve a canoe that had come untied and floated away.

My parents are William and Dione, and they were both born in New Zealand too! As were their parents (who knows where the German came in!)

My historical birthday, 11 January 1935:
Amelia Earhart was the first person to fly solo from Hawaii to California

My horrible birthday, 11 January 1693:
A 7.4 magnitude earthquake follows the eruption of Mt Etna in Italy, killing 60,000 people

My favourite family tradition is:
Spending Christmas together every year, no matter how far away from each other we are

My favourite food is:

All kinds of pasta!
Specifically, lasagne.

The name can be traced back to Ancient Greece, from the word 'Laganon', and is the first known form of pasta! The first recipe is credited to Britain, and generations of perfecting the dish to Italy!

Something I have learned about:

My family's history/culture:	Miss Stanton's history/culture:

What diversity means to me (start of Term 3):

Diversity means embracing and appreciating our individual differences, but also recognising our similarities as humans. Diversity should be celebrated!

What diversity means to me (end of Term 3):

“Keep your language. Love its sounds, its modulation, its rhythm. But try to march together with men of different languages, remote from your own, who wish like you for a more just and human world.”

– Helder Camara.
