

Refugee Cinquain Poem

Final Copy

A large diamond-shaped frame containing five horizontal lines for writing a poem. The lines are arranged in a 1-2-2 pattern, typical of a cinquain. The top line is the shortest, the second and third lines are of medium length, the fourth line is the longest, and the fifth line is of medium length.

